FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wayne County Development Alliance Hires two new Employees

Goldsboro, NC – The Wayne County Development Alliance filled two positions in January, 2009. Tiffany Creech was hired as Office Manager and Lindsey Savell was hired as Research and Marketing Specialist.

Mrs. Creech is a native of Wayne County, North Carolina. She graduated from Mount Olive College with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, with a concentration in Management. She relocated to Hampton Roads, Virginia in 1991 where she worked for a natural gas utility company as a financial analyst. She returned to Wayne County in 2004, and was hired January 5, 2009 as the Office Manager for the Development Alliance.

Mrs. Savell is originally from Houston, Texas. As a spouse of an active duty military member, she made her way to Wayne County in 2007. Mrs. Savell graduated from the University of Maryland, summa cum laude, with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology. While living in Japan, she served as the Lead Field Representative for the University of Maryland, and as a liaison between military members and the university. Mrs. Savell was hired January 5, 2009 as the Research and Marketing Specialist for the Development Alliance.

Development Alliance Chairman Ed Wilson stated, “Having these two ladies join our team brings us back to full staff. They are extremely talented and we are thrilled to have them working for the Development Alliance.”

The Wayne County Development Alliance provides the lead in economic development initiatives for Wayne County and its seven municipalities.
